Today's issue is fairly short as I'm still catching up on emails from the past 3 weeks. It was about that time that I dropped "most things Internet" to go be near a brother who was in a Daytona Beach, Florida hospital on life support and not expected to survive. Those types of things have a way of shifting our priorities :-)

My brother did not survive (as expected) and everything has been taken care of, so now it's time to get back to business. I did mention things I'm doing for his children at: <http://williecrawford.com/limitless7april05.pdf>

Today, I just wanted to share with you a course offered by my friend Jason Cox. Jason discovered the very lucrative field of JV brokering when he was about 18.

If you're not familiar with JV brokering, JV brokers find someone to help sell a product or service. They act as the "middleman." They find people with large mail lists or email lists, and they convince them to promote a product for a percentage commission. The person with the list earns a percentage and the JV broker, for setting the whole thing up, earns a commission (sometimes as high as 20%).

People with new products or services use JV brokers because they either don't have the time or connections to convince the right people to promote their products.

JV brokering is nothing new. I've done it for a while as have many top Internet marketers. Even John Reese who sold more than $1 million of his Traffic Secrets course in a day has a JV broker. The course is at: <http://TrafficSecretsOfJohnReese.com> My good friend Mike Mertz is John's JV broker. I don't know how long Mike has worked for John, but just imagine if he got just 10% of that $1 million :-)

Being a JV broker is fairly simply, but you do have to know what you're doing. They are time tested and proven techniques that work better than just doing it haphazardly.

I've mentioned Jason Cox to you before because I used his system to help John Evans sell nearly $60,000 of his $47 ebook Success Alert in less than 30 day. You'll find that book at <http://Success-Alert.com> I did get a commission for brokering that JV... and continue earning commissions for setting that up to this very day!

So, I just wanted to encourage you do one thing today because Jason's course is only available today. That's right, if you're reading this ezine, any day after Friday, April 29th, you've missed out. Here's part of a note I sent to one of my lists earlier today. It tells you all about it...

For the next 24 hours only you can order Jason Cox's new course "How To Quit Your Job & Become a Pro JV Broker" and get over $2,438.55 in bonuses...

... but after TODAY, April the 29th, this opportunity will be gone forever!
